President Will Meet Leaders On Stop-Gap Relief

To Meet Congress Leaders This Week To Explain Foreign Aid Program

MAY DETERMINE SPECIAL SESSION

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—President Truman and his experts will give congressional leaders a more complete picture of the administration's "stop-gap" foreign aid program at a White House conference tentatively set for next Wednesday or Thursday.

Responsible administration sources disclosed today that the meeting will include those top-ranking Republican leaders who are available as well as key Democrats from Capitol Hill.

Await Barkley's Return
The exact timing of the session was left open pending the return today or tomorrow of Senate Minority Leader Barkley (D, Ky.), who is en route home from Europe.

It will be Mr. Truman's second conference on the problem with legislative chiefs and is expected to have an important bearing on the need for a special session of Congress to deal with the President's request for 580 million dollars in emergency European aid.

The first White House conference was held just two weeks ago, on September 29, with about half the top-bracket leaders from both sides unable to attend.

Hope Leaders Can Attend
Administration quarters are "hopeful" that House Speaker Martin (R) Mass., Senate President Vandenberg (R) Mich., and Sen.

Pa Newc Observes

Two autos parked in the bus stop zone on the public square near the Y. W. C. A. at noon Sunday, certainly caused a traffic bottleneck on the Diamond.

Conditions throughout the county indicate the serious need of rainfall. Dust clouds are prevalent on all roads that are unsurfaced, and even along some of the improved highways, when a car strikes the berm.

It's your Pennsylvania keep it growing

Wild life is certainly paying the toll, to auto traffic these fall days. Many animals, such as skunks, groundhogs, rabbits, etc., are to be seen on the highways, having been struck by autos.

Buckwheat harvesting work is in progress on some of the district farms.

Sunday was certainly a flareback to summer. Residents were noted seated out on porches like mid-summer, the park benches had a lot of occupants, and here and there an out-of-door picnic was in evidence around the county.

Banking institutions were closed today in observance of the Columbus Day holiday.

As part of the observance of "Pennsylvania Week", some displays of products of local industry are to be seen in store windows this week. The Shenango Pottery has a large display in Butz store window, North Mercer street.

Expect Restaurant Industry To Back Food Saving Plan

By WILLIAM UNSTEAD
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The restaurant industry is expected today to throw its support behind President Truman's program of meatless, eggless and poultry-less days to save food for western Europe.

George Lesauvage, restaurant representative on the citizens' food committee, will meet in Washington today with industry leaders to discuss restaurant cooperation in the food conservation drive.

Industry sources expected Lesauvage to urge adoption of a specific food saving program in restaurants and expressed belief that owners of most eating places would go along with him.

A pledge of cooperation from restaurant leaders would add emphasis to the meatless Tuesday and eggless and poultryless Thursday program, which has met with strong opposition in many sections of the country.

Other developments in the food-saving drive included:

1. Charles Luckman, citizens' food committee chairman, called upon mayors of 1,000 cities to set up local food committees to cooperate with his group in carrying out the conservation program.

C. I. O. Delegates At Convention

Seven Hundred Assemble In Boston For Annual C. I. O. Convention

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—(INS)—Seven hundred delegates representing six million members, assembled in Boston today for the Ninth Annual Convention of the C. I. O.

They met in what was described by President Philip Murray as "one of the most critical times of history."

The convention was faced with problems of skyrocketing prices; an out-spoken course of political action against so-called "enemies of labor" in Congress; and adoption of a new foreign relations policy.

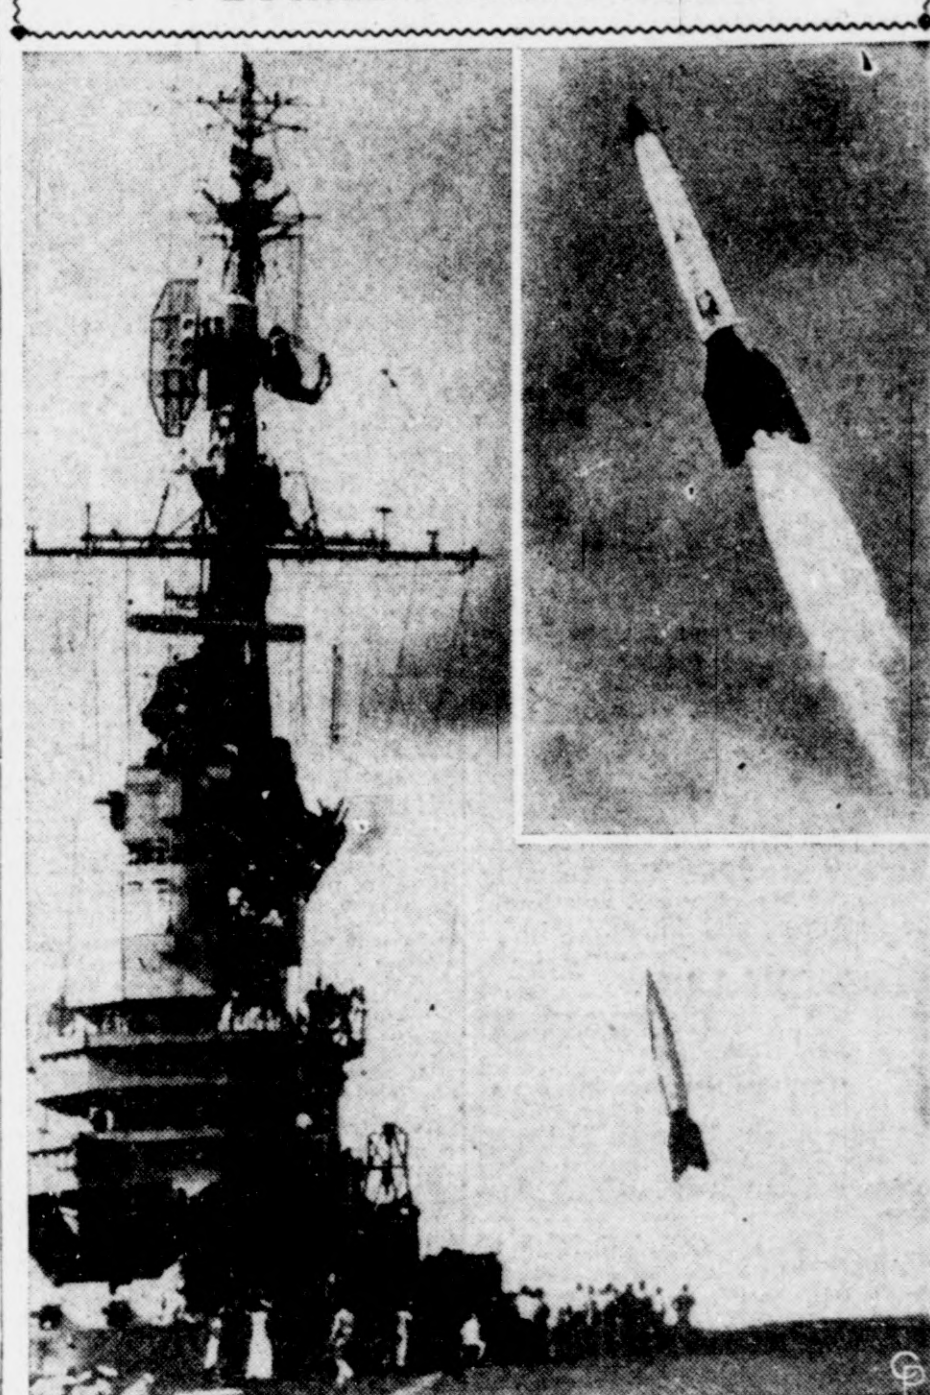

Prospects of a floor fight between right and left wing factions for domination of the convention faded, under guidance of Murray, at pre-convention meetings of various committees.

There appeared to be a temporary truce as the convention opened for a five-day stay at the Bradford hotel.

One fight threatened to mar the peace, however. That was the contest between two officers of the United Automobile Workers for this C. I. O. vice-presidency.

This was between Walter Reuther and R. J. Thomas, UAW president and vice president respectively.

The bodies of these dead, returned among the 3,023 who arrived Friday on the Honda Knot, were to be brought at noon to funeral homes and the Golden Gate cemetery for the first of 228,000 military funerals that will be held in the United States during the next months.

Other Nations To Voice Stand On Palestine

Expect Attitude Of Russia To Be Made Known To U. N. During Day

MANY OTHER ISSUES STILL TROUBLE U. N.

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Oct. 13.—Seventeen countries, led by Russia, are prepared today to voice their standpoint on Palestine in the United Nations following the United States declaration Saturday in favor of the U. N. partitioning plan.

The decisive speech today is that of Soviet Russia. France plans to keep silent for the present.

It is a foregone conclusion that Russia, eager to steal a march on the United States to gain the advantage in the roaring battle between east and west, will make a bid in some form to the Arabs.

A second issue pushing itself rapidly into the foreground is the proposed recruiting of a volunteer army to enforce the assembly's decision.

Differ On Size
Some delegates believe a sizeable force would be required to prevent the Arab states from staging a sudden invasion of the Holy Land. Others are inclined to assume that a modest "police troop" would suffice to maintain law and order until the two states are able to function on their own responsibility.

Although a large measure of approval for the United States standpoint is evident among delegations at Lake Success, despite uncertainty and vagueness in the details, the consensus is that much ground has been lost among the Arabs.

The fifth week of the General Assembly sessions, far behind on its schedule, begins today under a cloud.

One Of Sorest Issues
One of the sorest issues between the east and west is the election of a successor to Poland for the 1948 security council.

The United States continues to lead the fight to bar the Ukraine from that seat.

Indications are that another attempt to force a decision will be made either Wednesday or Thursday at a plenary session at Flushing Meadows.

The United States is presenting this week the formalized demand that Korea be granted independence before adjournment of the current assembly.

The fiery dispute over Greece in the political and security committee will resume again at 11 o'clock this morning but is close to its termination.

Public Library Re-Opened Today

Improvements Made During Nearly Five Months Shut-Down At Local Library

New Castle Free Public Library reopened its doors this morning at 9 o'clock, and will again extend its service to its borrowers, following a shut-down of nearly five months, during which time improvements were made, and book shelves installed.

Miss Alice Sterling, librarian, was present to greet Philip J. Wimer, 206 Meyer avenue, the first borrower to enter the library, and his first book borrowed was entitled, "Better Typewriting". Within a half an hour, well over 15 books were on the borrowed list, and indications were shown that

I never take the calendar as the official date, to show that autumn has come back for sometimes it is late. But when the buckeyes start to fall, emerging from their shell of satin lined green-coated walls, then it is time to tell the world that fall is here, and summer's gone away, and buckeyes now are on the ground, it's seventy-eight today.

Sharks Big Worry To Couple Adrift In Gulf Nine Days

St. Petersburg Man And Wife Face Food And Water Ordeal As Motor Fails

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 13.—(INS)—A 53-year-old St. Petersburg, Fla., man and his wife, rescued after drifting for nine days in the Gulf of Mexico, revealed today that sharks were a bigger worry during the ordeal than water or food.

Ed Van Buren, retired business man, and his wife were brought into Mobile by the S. S. John Jarlan after the pair were lost for nine days in their disabled 40-foot craft, the Nancy II.

The couple left Snead Island, Fla., on October 2, for St. Petersburg. The motor broke down almost immediately. There was little food, water or fuel left.

Rationed Food

The couple said they lost considerable weight because they rationed their scant food supply to last 30 days.

On the second day adrift, it rained. The couple laid out bath towels, and then squeezed the water into their mouths.

During the days of drifting, Van Buren scribbled notes on the walls of the vessel giving information about his insurance policies, safety deposit vaults and other data.

But asked what he thought about most while adrift, Van Buren answered: "Sharks. They would swim around our little craft waiting. There was one big one in particular that would turn on his side and look me right in the eye."

Taft (R) O., Senate policy chairman—all of whom are absent now from Washington—can attend.

Martin, Taft and Barkley were not present at the September 29 conference.

GOP leaders made it clear at the time that they would not undertake to call a special session. President Truman asked that Senate and House Foreign Affairs and Appropriations committees meet to go over data being prepared by U. S. study groups as well as estimates of need submitted by the 16-nation European committee.

As a result, meetings were set for November 10 and 15 of the Foreign Affairs and Appropriations groups of both houses.

This week's conference was intended to bring the congressional leadership "up to date" on progress made in the several surveys of America's ability to meet western Europe's urgent needs.

One such study, an interior department inventory of the nation's natural resources, has been completed. It reports that the United States would be able to fill only about one-half of Europe's coal requirements and furnish little if any petroleum.

The 12 cars, attached to regular passenger trains with their windows tightly curtained, carry all of the dead destined for Ogden, Utah, Auburn, Wash., and San Antonio, Tex., which were aboard the Honda Knot.

Other casket-laden cars will continue to go out through today and the army expects all bodies to be on their way home by Thursday.

Army officials, stressed, however, that confirmation telegrams must be received from the relatives before their loved ones can be sent home. These telegrams, which verify arrangements previously made, have been slow to arrive.

PUBLIC LIBRARY RE-OPENED TODAY

the local people were anxious to once again visit the library. The hours are from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

The two new floors laid, now contain the new shelves and the thousands of books. A metal staircase from the ground floor make it possible for borrowers to have access to all the books. The top level of the new stacks is nearly on the level with the children's department, and are being used for juvenile books.

Mrs. Walter McKee is the children's librarian and is busy preparing for the young people who borrow books from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Floors have been waxed and polished and the reading rooms made ready for the reading public. The reference room is also ready and new charts were made and installed at the sides of the stacks, which will enable the borrower to find the book he wants, with great ease, whether it be fiction or non-fiction.

BLAMES INFLATION

TOKYO, Oct. 13.—(INS)—Japan's inflation was blamed today for the hari-kari death of a 65-year-old Kyushu village official before the Imperial Palace in Tokyo.

The official, Ischiki Tanaka, a veteran of the Russo-Japanese war and father of two soldiers killed in the Pacific war, journeyed to Tokyo, bowed before the Imperial Palace and then slashed his abdomen with a knife. He then strangled himself with a cloth.

He left a note saying he was committing suicide because his fixed soldiers' pension was inadequate in postwar Japan.

Jared M. B. Reis

Jared M. B. Reis, dean of Pennsylvania sportsmen, died at 2:15 this morning in his home at 318 East Street. He was 91 years of age. Death came as the result of disabilities of old age.

Mr. Reis was born in Niles, O., the son of George Columbus Reis and Mary Dithridge Reis. At the age of six, with his parents, he came to New Castle and this city had been his home since, save for a short residence in Philadelphia.

As a young man Mr. Reis studied engineering developed into an expert in the coal and coke industry. He installed many batteries of coke ovens for the H. C. Frick Coal and Coke Company. With the formation of the United States Steel Corporation he became affiliated with it and continued his work in the coal and coke end of the industry.

All his life Mr. Reis was keenly interested in wild life and the outdoor sports. In 1924 he was made a member of the Pennsylvania Game Commission and in 1925 was made vice president of it. He served on the commission until 1931.

As a game commissioner he introduced the ring necked pheasant in Pennsylvania and more than any other one man was responsible for the thousands of pheasants found in Pennsylvania forests today. He also introduced the Hungarian partridge as a game bird in the state.

Many years ago he inaugurated pheasant and grouse field trials, something thought to be impossible. Today there are many organizations interested in such trials, that owe their being to Mr. Reis vision and determination.

As a sportsman he knew the fishing and hunting spots of the entire nation. Whether it was duck hunting in South Carolina or steel head fishing in the far west, Mr. Reis was at home. His death sees the removal of a gentleman, a sportsman and a conservationist.

Several years ago he was the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the Lawrence County Sportsmen's Association. At that time he was presented with a plaque honoring his years of service in the cause of hunting and fishing.

Mr. Reis is survived by one sister, Mrs. Rosina Reis Newcombe of New York City. His wife, Mary Ewing Reis preceded him in death in 1903.

The body is at his former home at 318 East Street. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, October 15 at 3 o'clock with the Offutt Company conducting the funeral. The services will be in charge of Rev. R. E. Hovencamp, recently named rector of Trinity Episcopal church. Interment will be in Oak Park Cemetery.

"EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER!"

... in bowling and in choosing a cigarette."

says

Ned Day
5-TIME NATIONAL
BOWLING CHAMPION

I KNOW
FROM EXPERIENCE
THERE'S NO
OTHER CIGARETTE
LIKE A CAMEL

MORE PEOPLE ARE SMOKING CAMELS THAN EVER BEFORE!

"GREATEST Match Game Bowler of All Time" is the title that bowling authorities have given Ned Day. He's had years of experience as a bowler. His most enlightening experience as a smoker dates back to the wartime cigarette shortage.

"Those were the days," says Ned, "when I smoked whatever brand I could get. Naturally, I compared the different brands I smoked. I found by experience that no other cigarette suits my "T-Zone" like a Camel!"

Many thousands had that same experience. With smoker after smoker who tried and compared, Camels are the "choice of experience."

Try Camels. Let your own experience ... your "T-Zone" ... tell you why more people are smoking Camels than ever before!

According to a Nationwide survey:

MORE DOCTORS SMOKE CAMELS THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE

When 113,597 doctors from coast to coast were asked by three leading independent research organizations to name the cigarette they smoked, more doctors named Camel than any other brand!

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

ADEQUATE MILK CONSUMPTION

Nutrition experts tell us that milk is the most nearly perfect food, and one of the most economical. Comparatively large quantities of milk are included in "low cost good diet" for Americans in the low income brackets prepared by the Bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

On the average, milk is one-fourth of the family's total food bill. Yet milk supplies nearly half the family's food requirements—all its calcium, 79 per cent of the riboflavin, 69 per cent of the phosphorus, 49 per cent of the protein, 37 per cent of the vitamin A, 30 per cent niacin and 28 per cent vitamin B1.

The U. S. Bureau of Human Nutrition recommends for the family of four—mother, father, boy of 10, girl of 8—24 quarts of milk per week.

Production Is Greater
Milk production now on farms in the United States is greater than before the war and production per cow on farms is larger than it has ever been in our history. More than 26 million cows on three-fourths of the nation's farms now produce milk. About half of all the milk produced in the United States is consumed in liquid form. The rest goes into butter, cheese, ice cream, and many other products (some of which are not foods).

Though the average family does not consume nearly enough milk for best health, more and more families year by year, are including milk in their daily diet. A recent study made in Milwaukee revealed that 99.1 per cent of all families there purchased milk regularly.

Adults need milk, too. Many old people would be healthier, stronger and would live longer if they would consume more milk. Some of them drink little or no milk because they didn't drink it with enjoyment when they were children. Some of them, of course, didn't have milk to drink when they were children. Others never cultivated a good appetite for milk in their earlier years.

Some children today, even in homes of abundance, are not learning to enjoy the drinking of milk; a few, indeed, are acquiring positive dislike of milk. This dislike of milk usually comes about in the same way that dislike of any other essential foods arises—over the kind of eating problems often discussed in this column (elaborated on in my bulletin, "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Correction," to be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.).

Dislike Of Milk
Almost no children would gain a dislike of milk—or of any other food for that matter—if their parents (Continued on Page Eleven)

One Man's Opinion

There is less squawking about high prices since the discovery that Lincoln paid $375 for a bed . . . and there were no more slats in it than you've got.

We since have had presidents who would pay to get into bed and pull the covers up over their heads . . . wouldn't he?

But the attic discovery touched off a rush of top-floor treks around the nation . . . We found in our attic an elderly man claiming to be General Sherman.

I said "how long have you been hiding here?" He said: "Since I was mentioned for the presidency . . . Tell me, what poor devil did they capture?"

When I told him the voters had since got one man four times he shook his head and said "he just wasn't resistin'."

I hear that now that Lincoln's receipts have been found the search has been renewed for Hoover's rubbers.

SAN FRANCISCO—James F. O'Neill, American Legion national commander, denouncing Sen. Taft (R) O. for opposing universal military training: "The senior senator from Ohio has an extraordinary record of being wrong on military affairs."

WASHINGTON—Rep. Mahon (D) Tex.: "In Italy and Greece, the rich are living richly and the poor poorly. It provides a fine breeding ground for communism."

Meatless Choose Day

New Frontier Is Suggested

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—More valuable in the long view than money or even food is an American commodity which could be shipped to Europe with raising much squawk in congress or in public discussion. We could export this commodity without loss to ourselves and with great gain to the recipients, for it is the sort of thing that increases in value with use and spreads its benefits in ever-increasing circles. I am not talking about anything spiritual or ideological. I'm talking about what is known as American know-how.

Export Know-How

The idea of exporting know-how was expounded to me some weeks ago by a Detroit automobile and refrigerator maker who is, in fact, suiting action to his words by moving young industrial engineers and even labor foremen overseas for his company. I withhold the man's name as I imagine he will reveal his plans in due time, but what brings the proposition to mind is a speech by young Nelson Rockefeller, former co-ordinator of inter-American affairs. Rockefeller told an audience of businessmen and bankers that:

"There lies unlimited opportunity for us to help other nations help themselves at the working level. By entering into partnership with private groups in these countries, we can help them with the experience and know-how to develop a firm foundation for the rapid expansion of those goods and services essential to the rehabilitation."

For Private Enterprise

Both Rockefeller and my Detroit industrialist see the export of American business talent as a matter for private enterprise to handle. But there is no good reason why the Marshall planners cannot consider this as part of a government policy. It would not be the first time that Washington has assisted in the opening of new territories for American enterprise. All during the 19th Century the government passed homesteading bills and made land grants for the opening of the American west. And during the early years of the present century, the armed forces were used to give Americans opportunities in Asia and the Pacific isles.

Learn By Mistakes

A revival of business expansion as a political policy could be inaugurated today on a far different basis. In previous times the motive was not always altruistic and the methods were not always sound. But it is not too much to suppose that we have learned by former mistakes, and it is certainly a fact that the present situation in the beat-up war areas has sobered us immensely. A real effort, properly planned and sincerely entered upon, could make this new type of homesteading a very attractive opportunity to talented young men and women.

I haven't a doubt, for instance, that 200 graduates from our engineering or business administration schools could take over a German industry and in a matter of ten years make it into a profitable enterprise that would support thousands of laborers in something like the conditions that American workers enjoy. It is better than an even bet that American promoters today would be able to accomplish for the European wilderness as much as their frontier forebears accomplished for the unproductive plains and deserts of our own midlands. True, there is a vast difference in the problems but there is a compensating difference in the pioneers who would undertake the task. Ask some of the GI's who snorted with disgust at the total lack of know-how they found in some of the lands they conquered or liberated. Given the opportunity, these ex-tire salesmen, farmer boys and machinists whom we sent out to win the war could help us enormously to win the peace.

Not Too Far-Fetched

This idea will not seem far-fetched to persons who recognize American ingenuity for the miracle-maker that it is. It is a quality that has no limitations except the far-flung borders of the imagination. I would not attempt to say that a sharp operator from Main street would do to a French village, but I am sure he would revolutionize it into a place where the factory would make money, the drug store would serve sundae and the houses would sport radios, electric iceboxes and gas stoves. And I would bet my bottom dollar that there is nothing wrong with European agriculture that a few hundred farmers from Ohio, Wisconsin, etc., couldn't cure.

But how to induce Americans to homestead overseas? The ancient Romans had a way of rewarding their generals by giving them a province to plunder. The modern equivalent would be for the U. S. to loan money to any businessman who desired to have a try in foreign enterprise, to guarantee him freedom from interference by local authorities. Thus the funds, the machinery, the tractors, the fertilizer that we sent overseas would be placed in the hands of persons best able to use them for the purpose we intend.

GUESSING GAME

Oh, my temples may be gray
And I may be past my prime,
But I'm not too old to play
Guessing games at dinner time.

And a form of fun I love
Is to look about and say:
"There's a thing I'm thinking of,
Who can guess it right away?"

"Is it in the room?" they cry.
"Is it black or white or green?"
And I chuckle as they try
To discover what I mean.

"Is it mineral or plate?"
Is it silver? Is it glass?"
Here is fun, I dare to state,
Life holds nothing to surpass.

Little girl and little boy,
With the evening coming on,
Who knows any better joy
For the day that's almost gone
Than such guessing games as these?

There is nothing, I reply,
Nothing better me to please
I would play them till I die.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

We have used the following before . . . but now that the Community Chest Campaign is about to start . . . maybe it might be well if we all read and think once more.

LEANERS AND LIFTERS
There are two kinds of people on earth today.
Just two kinds of people—no more, I say.
Not the saint and the sinner, for 'tis well understood
The good are half bad and the bad are half good:
Not the rich and the poor, for to count a man's wealth
You must first know the state of his conscience and health;
Not the humble and proud, for in life's little span
Who puts on vain airs is counted a man;
Not the happy and sad, for the fast flying years
Bring each man his laughter and each man his tears.
No! the two kinds of people on earth that I mean
Are the people who LIFT and the people who LEAN.
Where'er you go, you find the world's masses
Are always divided in just these two classes;
And oddly enough you will find, too, I ween
There is only one Lifter to twenty who lean.

READ THE ACT.

A large number of good citizens undoubtedly have been prejudiced against the new Labor Relations Act by the steady barrage of misleading propaganda directed at the measure by spokesmen for organized labor. The new law has been described as "crucifying" labor, as wiping out all of labor's "gains," as a death blow to unionism. It has been denounced through newspaper advertisements and radio broadcasts without qualification by the American Federation of Labor alone raised a fund of nearly a million dollars to misinform the public about the provisions of the law.

Should Get Acquainted

The citizen who wants to be fair in his judgment of this act first of all should get acquainted with its provisions. If he does so, he will be greatly surprised—after listening to the sob-sister oratory of its union opponents—at its fairness, not only to the public, in whose interest it was passed, but to the rank and file of union membership.

There is no interference in the Taft-Hartley Act with the bargaining rights of unions, no interference with the right to strike. In fact, the bargaining process is facilitated.

There is no attempt to detract from the right of workers to organize.

There is no restriction on the right of unions to resist unfair labor practices.

Limitations Out

These limitations on the heretofore unlimited powers of labor dictators do appear in the law:

Elimination of the closed shop, which denied the right of a worker to work unless he pays tribute to a union. Certainly the right to work is as fundamental as the right to strike.

Enforcement of the "check-off" without the written consent of the union member.

Enforcement of contracts or agreements, with the union having (Continued on Page Eleven)

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

Somewhere on a back page of my newspaper this morning there was a story which, while of no great timely importance, gave me much food for thought.

The American Museum of Natural History has announced the discovery of a new and rich deposit of mammal fossils in New Mexico, yielding significant secrets of life in America sixty million years ago.

An expedition of scientists found, on a branch of the Oso Arroyo, the skeleton of a mammal known as the Mesotherium—a leaf-eating creature about the size of a fox terrier, with a tail and five-toed feet.

And there are more discoveries to come.

"Mystery animals" they are called—until more is known about them.

"Mystery animals." What will they turn out to be? Will there be any human skeletons among them?

Were there any humans sixty million years from now—a million years from now—a thousand years from now?

I read an interesting article about Hollywood in one of the national magazines yesterday.

It was by Evelyn Waugh, the English writer whose typewriter has a very sharp tongue.

He was wondering what future historians would find in Hollywood. (Continued on Page Eleven)

DESTROY THE FOOD AND BLAME THE DOCTORS

Our boys were given physical or medical examinations for the selective service.

Many of them rejected for conditions due to faulty nutrition. They had not eaten enough of the right kind of food. We destroyed tons of meat and vegetables and fruit which these boys could have eaten.

The doctors were not to blame for the poor condition of the boys. We need all the pigs and cattle and poultry and fish and wheat and corn and potatoes and fruit that we can raise.

Good health depends a lot on an abundance of good food. Well fed people are more likely to be comfortable, contented and happy than poorly fed people.

Let's keep on raising more better food and eating it all.

Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

(Copyright 1947, By The Baltimore Sun)

Governor Dewey Still The Favorite

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—In the three months since Congress adjourned there have been certain developments in the Republican situation so far as the presidential nomination is concerned, but none have materially changed the prospect. Many things can transpire in the eight months before the convention meets. Nevertheless, nine times out of ten it is the expected that happens in politics.

UPSETS occur and dark horses have been known to win, but these are merely the exceptions that prove the rule. Therefore, those who understand these basic facts regard Governor Dewey of New York as the leading and most likely candidate for the nomination now just as he was a year ago. Senator Taft has made a successful tour of the West, favorably impressing many people and exhibiting in his speeches the courage, character and ability which are generally conceded him. Ex-Governor Stassen has expanded his activities and is continuing the open pursuit of the nomination which he began nearly two years ago.

GENERAL EISENHOWER has been put—not too reluctantly, despite his protests—into the contest as the man to be "drafted" if and when the so-called Dewey-Taft duel leaves both those gentlemen dead on the field of battle. This, of course, is the fond hope of all the aspirants. They have no other. If Dewey and Taft do not kill each other off, no dark horse will ever get out of his stall at this convention. Of course the Eisenhower draft plans are complicated and made difficult by two things. One is the fact that General Eisenhower is not the only military hero who has been proposed as a presidential candidate and for whom there is sentiment.

ONE IS General Marshall; the other General MacArthur. General Marshall voluntarily slammed the door on the suggestion so emphatically that he ended all speculation concerning him. General Eisenhower could have done the same thing but didn't. General MacArthur almost did a year or so ago but not quite. He is expected to close the crack when the right moment arrives, despite the enthusiastic boosting of such Republicans as ex-Congressman Hamilton Fish and others. Thus, in all probability, General Eisenhower's name will be the only one of a military man presented in the convention. That, however, is not the point. The point is that with one general, certainly of equal popularity and reputation, having definitely pushed political office aside, and another in the same class almost sure to do the same thing, it will be rather hard to pretend that there is anything like a vast public demand for General Eisenhower because of his great military achievements and glories.

IF THERE were not two other heroes (even though they refuse to contend), the position of the "draft" Eisenhower forces unquestionably would be stronger. The other problem in the "draft" Eisenhower movement is Mr. Stassen. Through two years of steady work Mr. Stassen has stirred up a favorable sentiment which entitles him to serious consideration. He certainly will go into the convention with a great many more votes than the General. If the Dewey-Taft stalemate develops, the Eisenhower managers have got either to push Mr. Stassen aside or make a deal with him. The latter might not be too difficult but it would be impossible to do so and keep up the pretension of a "draft."

YET it is the only way it can be done. Certainly the convention is not going to be stampeded for the General or anyone else. The galleries sometimes go crazy but no one ever heard of a convention doing so. Delegates do not stampede. They wait until the deals are made and the word comes down the line. Adding all this up, the most experienced politicians, Democrats as well as Republicans, continue to believe Governor Dewey will be the nominee. Some of these do not want him. Some are tied up with other aspirants. Some will not vote for him. Some hope the unexpected, but always possible, bad break will come to him. But if right now, as last winter, they had to bet, they would bet on him. He is the odds-on favorite. There is no doubt of that.

THE reasons are clear. First, ever since his re-election as Governor in 1946 by a 700,000 majority, he has been the logical candidate for Second, they know he has made a good—Governor of New York. Third, New York is the indispensable State without which there is slight chance of winning. Above everything else, the Republicans want to win and they know Governor Dewey can more surely carry New York than any other candidate. Fourth, they know he will make a good campaign; that in 1944 he would have beaten Mr. Roosevelt but for the war, and only lost New York, then by 317,000 votes. They know, too, he already has demonstrated his ability to beat the CIO, the American Labor party, the Communists and all the radical groups which were solidly against him in 1946 and which will be solidly against the Republican candidate no matter who he may be.

NONE of this means that Governor Dewey is the only Republican who can win. None of it means he is sure to be nominated. It does mean that he is the most likely to win, has the most delegates now and, according to the polls, the most popular support. Under these circumstances it would be rather silly to permit his rivals to prod him into "expressing his views" before he is ready. The prodding comes exclusively from those who do not want him nominated and hope if he can be made to open his mouth wide enough he will put his foot in it. There isn't much chance of that and the mystery about his "views" is largely synthetic.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Oestreicher, INS Foreign Director

Reports that Arab forces are massing on the frontiers of Palestine to ensure Moslem strength and stability will draw little or no surprise to European diplomatic quarters today.

For many months, dispatches have been reaching London to the effect that Arab bands are ready to march into the Holy Land.

The warning served by the Arab league of such intentions served largely to place an accent on these reports and to arouse speculation as to the outcome should such a development occur.

50,000 Trained Troops

A Reuters news agency dispatch from Baghdad in the middle of the summer said that 50,000 Arab troops, well-trained and well-equipped, had been organized into a striking force and were on an active footing somewhere near Damascus.

There was no further full confirmation of this. But from that time on reports have trickled in of Arab mobilization in various sectors of the middle east and these usually have told of certain extremist leaders at the heads of the detachments.

From the purely military point of view, some experts believe it would be difficult indeed for any irregular Arab bands to make a successful offensive foray into Palestine against organized defense.

There are not many avenues of entry into Palestine from the other Arab states.

Desert Warfare Difficult
Desert warfare fought in the near and middle east through ages past has demonstrated the tremendous difficulties of such campaigns.

Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery of Alamein had to mount virtually a cannon a yard to break through when the Germans were on the upper tier of battle affairs in north Africa.

There is no denying the severity of the situation in Palestine. The British obviously are determined (Continued on Page Eleven)

Electric Roll Call Is Halted

Plans For System In House Of Representatives At Harrisburg Are Delayed

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 13.—(INS)—Installation of an electric roll call system in the hall of the House of Representatives today was halted indefinitely by the department of property and supplies. Obligations for preliminary wiring were settled and the $53,450 contract with a Harrisburg firm canceled, according to Deputy Secretary Frank Hoffman. The project was interrupted at the request of a House committee dissatisfied with the type of equipment proposed. Some members felt it could not be repaired quickly in case of a breakdown during legislative sessions while others protested that the recording board which would be installed in the front of the House did not fit in with the ornate architecture of the chamber. The department rejected bids three times over a two-year period before awarding the contract. The system was advocated to reduce the time required by the 208-member house to vote on legislation.

Gov. James H. Duff rated well with Democratic governors of Florida, Texas and Arkansas. He was invited by Gov. Millard Caldwell to visit Miami in November, was promised a 10-gallon hat by Gov. Beauford H. Jester of Texas and received a case of "Arkansas products" from Gov. Ben Laney. Duff was forced to turn down the southern trip due to pressure of business at the Pennsylvania state capitol.

Organizations associated with the capitol were quick to respond to the federal food conservation program. The Capitol Hill veterans luncheon, composed of state employees, cancelled arrangements to dine more than 1000 members this month and suspended luncheon meetings for the duration of the food shortage. The capitol cafeteria operated by the department of property and supplies, faithfully observed poultryless Thursday, but had meat on the first "meatless" Tuesday to use supplies on hand.

The state game commission said a final tabulation revealed 29 persons were killed and 337 others injured during the 1946 hunting season. Most accidents were attributed to carelessly handled guns. Fifteen of the fatalities were victims of their own weapons, the commission disclosed.

DeNorcey enlisted in the Navy on May 28, 1943, and holds the following medals: Asiatic-Pacific theater, American Area, Victory Medal and Good Conduct Medal. He served overseas 19 months.

He plans to attend business college, having worked as a scarier's helper with the Bethlehem Steel company before entering the service.

Halt Registration For Adult Classes

Announcement was made this morning from the superintendent of schools office that registration for adult classes at the senior high school has been stopped due to such an overwhelming response.

Sewing and typing classes are overflowing with each class in the four night schedule handling more students now than should be assigned to the classes.

A new registration will be announced shortly after the Christmas holiday period, when new classes will be formed and facilities will be available to handle another group which desires to take the night studies.

College Debate Tournament In State Planned

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 13.—Plans for a statewide college debate tournament next March were made recently in Harrisburg by a Pennsylvania Debating association committee under the chairmanship of Melvin P. Moorhouse, Westminster college debate coach.

The debate topic: "Resolved: That a Federated World Government Should Be Established" will be used throughout the college debating season, which will be under way soon. Westminster debaters plan to participate in several pre-season inter-college discussions and debates before Thanksgiving. Other topics which will be used this season are: "The Taft-Hartley Bill" and "Federal Aid to Education".

Weddings in Morocco last seven days.

Garden Notes

Plant deciduous shrubs and trees now. Be careful to firm the soil well around the roots to avoid air pockets.

Cultivate the planted borders as long as the soil is workable. Loosened soil is more receptive to moisture and plant food reacts better in it.

Don't forget to label all the places you plant bulbs so you won't dig them up when planting something else.

Do not mulch perennial beds and borders until the first hard frost arrives. Earlier mulching might encourage field mice.

Rake leaves off the lawn—they may be allowed to remain under shrubbery which appreciates a mulch of leaves.

If you clean, paint and oil garden tools now, you'll save yourself a lot of trouble next spring.

Move Christmas
Up Three Months
For Doomed Boy

DETROIT, Oct. 13.—Little Tommy Scott's eyes danced with excitement Sunday as he gazed at the enchanting Christmas tree and hundreds of gifts Santa had brought him.

"This is the happiest day of my life," he exclaimed, "I'm having a wonderful time."

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Scott and their many neighbors in suburban Wayne were glad that he was. They filled 9-year-old Tommy's day with merry-making, Christmas carols and turkey dinner.

They sang and laughed. They kept up a brave front. They didn't want Tommy to know he had cancer of the lymph and was going to die.

Gadget Prevents Fires In Autos

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—A low-cost device which its inventor claims will prevent 90 per cent of the fires that follow automobile accidents was available "for free" to the auto industry today.

William A. Gross of Chicago said the invention, a mercury switch which fits into the ignition, could be made in mass production for "about 10 cents."

Gross, former chief of the Electrical Engineering Division of the Nash Motor Car Co., holds a patent on the switch. He said he was willing to waive all royalties "because I haven't time to promote it and I don't need the money."

Mercury in the container makes the contact but breaks it whenever the car tilts at a 45-degree angle. That cuts off the ignition current.

A billion and a half tons of iron ore have been taken from the Mesabi range.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Anderson May Head Democrats

Observers Assert Anderson
Looks Like New Chairman Of National Committee

GEN. EISENHOWER 'THREAT' GROWING

(Special To Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Just who will succeed Robert Hannegan as chairman of the Democratic national committee will be settled in the very near future.

It still looks like Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson of New Mexico. Closest advisers to President Truman say he is the chief executive's first choice. It is all up to Anderson, who is returning to Washington after a long vacation.

If Anderson takes the Hannegan post, it is a cinch that the job of executive director now held by Gael Sullivan will be continued with either Sullivan or a young politico from the east with a knowledge of city politics in the post.

Those closest to the White House say reports that Judge James P. McGranery, of Pennsylvania, will become national chairman and also enter the cabinet as postmaster general are discounted. These sources put the ex-congressman from the Keystone state at the bottom of the list.

Close on Anderson's heels is Senator James McGrath of Rhode Island.

However, at this moment in Washington, Anderson is still looked upon as the man who will finally head up the 1948 Democratic national campaign with the aid of someone from the east.

Eisenhower "Threat" Grows
The professional politicians, complexions already tinged with that smoky hotel-room pallor, are seeing Gen. Ike Eisenhower more and more as a threat for the Republican presidential nomination.

Latest hint to these "wise money" men was Harold Stassen's "wouldn't say yes, but wouldn't say no" to the question of whether he would accept second place on a GOP ticket led by Ike.

Thirty seconds before, a group of ballot-wise Washington reporters had had no trouble eliciting from Stassen the crisp statement that he would not run on the same ticket with New York's Gov. Tom Dewey.

What the aggressive former Minnesota governor and naval veteran actually said regarding Eisenhower was: "I'd rather not answer that in deference to the general's wishes."

The liberator of Europe, soon to don khaki for the educator's gown as president of Columbia university, has stated that he is not a candidate for public office.

However, Stassen and Eisenhower conferred at length several weeks ago at the Minnesota state fair.

Stassen insists that he is interested only in the presidency, but it is believed by political experts that he sees in Eisenhower a progressive willing and able to unseat the GOP Old Guard, which the Minnesota has opposed bitterly and consistently.

Senators Squeezed Out

The Senate was investigating committee, founded on a resolution authorized by President Truman when he was a senator and originally headed by him, has run into a streak of bad luck.

The "jinx" began, in the opinion of some observers, with the Howard Hughes plane contract hearings during which the audience, at least, sided with Hughes and other witnesses and against the committee. In the face of widespread criticism, the hearings were suddenly discontinued until Nov. 15.

Later, Senator Owen Brewster (R) Maine, committee chairman, announced that he would not attempt to have the unit continued beyond its present life, which is due to expire Jan. 31. His announcement came as a surprise since a number of Republicans had counted on the committee functioning throughout the 1948 presidential campaign year.

The third blow came with an announcement by a House subcommittee headed by Rep. George Bender (R) Ohio, that it was investigating the alleged squandering of millions of dollars in settlement of war contracts.

The Senate committee had expected to go into this matter. But with the House group already holding hearings, Brewster's committee decided to forget about the war contract settlements. It found itself backed off the calendar for the first time.

CHEWTON

CLASS MEETING

On Saturday evening, members of the J. C. Yoho Bible class of the Chewton Christian Sunday school met in the basement of the church for their monthly business session, conducted by the president, Lewis B. Guy.

Mrs. Guy, Mrs. Galen Allen, Mrs. J. D. Gormley and Mrs. Lewis Guy were appointed as a committee to make plans for the anniversary dinner to be held in November.

The class was organized in the fall of 1942 and each year since has held an anniversary dinner. After the business meeting, the evening was turned over to Albert Lutz, who acted as master of ceremonies for the program planned by Mr. and Mrs. Braden McKim as hosts.

After a song sung by the group they were entertained by a duet with Richard Aiken playing the accordion and David Aiken the guitar; duet by Mr. and Mrs. Regis Arnold; reading by Rena Houk; reading by Albert Lutz with a dramatic sketch by Braden McKim; accordion solo by Richard Aiken; reading by Leona McKim and a guitar solo by David Aiken.

After the program games were enjoyed with prizes being awarded to Mary Arnold, Dorothy Mayberry, Ruth Guy, Mabel Allen, Glenn Hennen, Paul Houk, Regis Arnold and Lewis Guy. A delicious hot lunch was served by the hosts and hostesses.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 13.—Handsome Glenn Ford, who's had five days of vacation in five years, has about given up hope of getting away from the grind.

"I just don't think about vacations any more," Glenn said. "I've been busy the whole two years since I got out of the service. I spent three years in the service. You can figure it out for yourself."

Just No Rest

At the moment Glenn is in the midst of Columbia's "The Return of October," his third picture in a row. Before that were "The Making of Millie" and "Colorado."

I suggest that maybe there'd be a vacation coming after his current assignment.

"Oh, no," said Glenn, already they're talking about putting me in "Carmen" with Rita Hayworth."

Powell Tough Man

Dick Powell, who has become one of the screen's roughest screen heroes, is coming to the roughest moments in RKO's "Station West." It's one of the early highlights of the picture, in which Dick, playing a government agent, has a terrific battle with Gwynn "Big Boy" Williams.

In the story Dick takes a very bad beating. He's been working for weeks with the cars—carefully arranged by make-up experts—growing fainter and fainter.

Do Get Hurt

As a matter of fact, the battle is about to take place. No matter how many precautions are taken or how punches are pulled, actors do get hurt in movie fights.

That's why this one is being staged at the end of the picture new Disney feature, "Fun and Fancy Free." There'll also be several stars present.

But, the kids probably will get their biggest kick from the ice cream and cake. Walt and Mickey are planning to have plenty of both.

Not Very Glamorous

The most unglamorous bathtub seen in movieland in many a day has just been dragged out by MGM for a scene in "The Hills of Home."

It's an oversized wooden bucket, about four feet in diameter and two and a half feet high. Tom Drake and Edwin Gwynn get the chore of filling it with smaller wooden buckets, so Janet Leigh, the Stockton, Cal., peach, can take a bath.

No Early Removal Of Rent Control In Pittsburgh District

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—Rent controls may be removed before next February 29 from some areas of the United States where the housing shortage has been eased but the Pittsburgh district is not likely to be included.

That was indicated by C. Howard McPeak, Federal rent director for this district, after the national rent control office in Washington announced controls will be removed where feasible.

Declaring that he would not recommend removal of controls in this area, Mr. McPeak said it is obvious "that the housing situation in this area is still critical." He cited the large number of newspaper ads from families seeking apartments and houses and the many appeals to his office by families which are forced to move and are unable to find quarters.

In Washington, Rent Director Frank Creedon said rent controls may be removed in areas "wherever conditions warrant" before the general expiration of controls on February 29. He added such action may be taken in Pennsylvania and other states where no local rent boards have yet been named by the governors.

Miss Davis had visited Mrs. Walsh and departed on the nine o'clock p. m. bus for home, but failed to arrive here.

She is described as follows: Hair, blonde; eyes, brown; height, 5'7"; weight, 138; brown striped suit; black hat, black suede shoes and carried a black bag.

GRINDSTONE, Pa., Oct. 13.—(INS)—Charles Dunn, 39, was slashed to death today as he and Louise Payton alighted from a bus near Dunn's home in Grindstone.

Police said Isiah Brewer, 25, also of Grindstone, was arrested and is being held for questioning in connection with the death.

Police added that Brewer was jealous because the Payton woman jilted him.

Y.M.C.A. Carries On Much Needed Work With Hundreds Of Youths In Our City

Shown enjoying a swim in the pool at the central branch of the Y.M.C.A. are these boys of the city, members of one of the most thriving organizations in our community. Regular sessions in the pool are only one of many activities at the center where the physical as well as the spiritual strengthening of the youths is stressed.

In 1867 the Young Men's Christian Association was organized in New Castle.

During these past eighty years, the Association has continued to serve the men and boys of our city. The activities of the "Y" are so planned to provide training for both men and boys along the line of physical, educational, social and spiritual growth.

Through classes, games and clubs of all kinds this youth organization has been able to serve many thousands of adults and youngsters each year. The New Castle Association is well qualified to render such a service with consecrated leadership and splendid physical equipment.

Each year some 3,000 men and boys are brought in contact with the services of the branch. With the continued support of the people of New Castle, through their giving to the Community Chest, the Association expects to continue this most valued service to the community.

Everybody benefits—everybody gives.

YOUTHFUL BRIDE'S SECOND MARRIAGE

"Our daughter was married while in her teens and due to circumstances beyond our control she is divorced. Now she is about to remarry, desiring the most elaborate wedding possible under the circumstances. Are we correct in assuming that she may wear a bridal gown in a pastel? How many bridal attendants are permissible? Is the groom's sister a must in the wedding party?"

Answer: A white bridal dress and veil, orange blossoms and bridesmaids are correct for a maiden bride only. Regardless of the circumstances of the first wedding—the youthfulness of the bride—the fact that she is not a maiden limits her choice of wedding assemblage. It would look "stages" for her to wear pastel bridal gown and veil. She might, though, choose a full-length pastel dress with a matching Juliet cap draped with a shoulder-length veil, such as worn by bridesmaids in formal weddings.

A maid-of-honor, a best man and, if necessary, ushers should be her only attendants. The groom's sister is not a must especially when the bride will have only one attendant. In a large wedding with many bridesmaids, it is customary for the bride to include the groom's sister, as it is for the groom to include the bride's brother to be an usher.

Question: A close friend has recently had a baby. Her mother is considering giving her a shower. Do you think it would be correct for me to give her one or is it her mother's place to do so—or should she have one for herself? Are men invited, as well as women?

Answer: No woman should give a shower for herself—either a bridal or baby shower; nor should any member of her family do so. Baby showers are usually held in the afternoon and women only attend.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped self-addressed envelopes.

the same responsibility in this respect as that imposed on employers.

Prohibition of political contributions by unions, just as corporations already are prohibited.

Prohibition of jurisdictional strikes which are not only injurious to the public but to the workers themselves.

Prohibition of strikes without eighty days' notice in industries basic to the national welfare and without sixty days' notice to other industries.

Joint labor-management control is authorized over "welfare funds" to which employers contribute.

Supervisors are classed as a part of management and are not eligible to bargain through unions.

No fair-minded individual, capable of understanding the terms of the Labor Relations Act, can honestly say that it infringes on any legitimate right of any group of workers.

On the contrary, some of its provisions are wholly in the interest of the members of unions, limiting the absolute and dictatorial powers heretofore exercised by the top-rank bosses.

Labor leaders are within their rights, of course, in moving to test the new act. The test will be welcomed by the public, whose stake in the successful operation of the law is primary. In the meantime, Mr. and Mrs. Citizens should learn the provisions of the law and give them fair consideration, instead of being misled and confused by the high-powered and high-priced ballyhoo of its opponents.

LOOKING AT LIFE

wood and Beverly Hills and Los Angeles in years to come when nature had taken its course and all the present beauty and color of that wonder territory had turned back to dust.

He was wondering how much of it would be left and what deductions these future historians would draw from what they then would find.

I wonder, too, sometimes, how this human race of ours will look to the historians of the future. What will all this strutting of ours and all this egotism of ours and all that lust for power and glory and for fame and riches amount to when nature has taken her course, and when all that we now fight and labor for has turned to dust?

How will we and our vaunted civilization look to the historians of the future?

What imprint will we have left upon the world?

Will we, too, simply be objects for the microscopes of museum scientists?

Will we, the rulers of the earth, simply be known as curious specimens of a bygone and vanished age?

Will we be classified under a name such as that of the little Meniscotherium with a tail and five toes?

I don't know. You don't know. But, in the meantime, let us just relax a little bit and realize that a century in history is no more than a little comma in a twenty-volume encyclopedia.

Chest Workers Kick-Off Dinner Tuesday Evening

Some 250 Volunteers Will Gather At The Castleton
To Map Campaign
Plans

Tuesday night at 6:15 in The Castleton hotel approximately 250 fellow citizens will gather to start the drive for the Community Chest. There are the workers—individuals who will give of their time, their efforts and talents to put the campaign over the top. They know the character of this drive—they recognize the importance of providing the necessary funds, and their enthusiasm will insure success.

How You Can Help

Here's how you can help. When the solicitor calls at your home or approaches you at your place of business, be courteous, considerate and generous. Remember they are volunteer workers, so help make their task as easy as possible.

Check over the list of worthy agencies which benefit from the drive. There is not a single institution that doesn't merit your wholehearted support. Add up the amount you would normally give to each one—and double it.

Our community must raise $102,100. The cause is just—the need is urgent. Your cooperation and your contribution will make the task of reaching this goal an easy matter.

Let's have New Castle become one of the first in the nation to report success. It's up to you.

Huge Moving Van Damaged By Fire

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—(INS)—Pittsburgh fire officials today were attempting to determine the cause of flames that partially destroyed a huge moving van, bound from Iowa to Philadelphia with a load of furniture, on a street in Pittsburgh Sunday.

Loss was estimated at $2500. L. M. Phillips of Sioux City, Ia., operator of the truck, said he heard an explosion, possibly from a backfire, and then saw flames on both sides of the truck.

The truck was virtually destroyed and the trailer and part of the furniture were badly damaged.

Health Examinations Are In Order Again

Persons engaged in serving drink and food in New Castle must obtain a new card showing they are in good health.

They must go to their personal physician or to City Health Superintendent Dr. W. A. Womer to receive the test.

If found in good health a card will be issued which will be valid until the end of March, 1948. If, after the period for examinations passes a person is found working without a health card, he or she will be forced to leave the job.

Elsie F. Calvin Writes Of Work On National Council

Engaged In National Council For Social Studies Research In Washington, D. C.

Miss Elsie F. Calvin, who resigned last June as teacher of United States history in New Castle senior high school to accept work with the National Council for Social Studies, a department of the National Education Association, reports from Washington, D. C., that her research work with the council is progressing satisfactorily and that she is enjoying it very much.

Council Professional One
She feels that membership of social studies teachers in the national council is to the teacher what membership in the American Medical Association is to the doctor or membership in the American Bar Association is to the lawyer. For the publications of each such association keep the leaders in their particular field abreast of the problems and the immediate suggestions for the solution of the problems.

The work of the national council is of the utmost importance now in the light of present world condition, and it is imperative that teachers of social studies keep abreast of the times, she remarks in her letter.

Keeps Membership Informed

That is the chief work of the national council, which through its publications keeps the membership informed in every phase of the problems, in the field of history, and the educational problems in that field, not only in our own country but in others also, thereby furnishing background information for UNESCO (the United Nations Economic, Social and Cultural Organization), one of the most important divisions of the United Nations, she explains in telling of her work.

If U. N. Is to Function

For she feels strongly, she writes, that the United Nations will accomplish its purpose, world peace, only if the peoples, whose it is, understand it well enough to make it function, just as the early people of our beloved United States understood our constitution at government well enough to make it work through all its 160 anxious but glorious years.

The first telescope made by Galileo was by placing a spectacle lens at each end of a piece of organ pipe. This telescope magnified only three times.

Rev. W. H. Oldfield Will Speak Tonight

Veteran Missionary To China Will Speak At Missionary Convention In Progress Here

Rev. W. H. Oldfield, veteran missionary to China, will be heard this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Alliance Gospel Tabernacle, 210 Pearson street, at the missionary convention in progress there.

Rev. Oldfield and his wife have spent a combined total of 87 years in China under the Christian and Missionary Alliance. Due to failing health, the couple have had to return to the states. Mr. Oldfield will be in the city only Monday and Tuesday, but the convention will continue throughout the week.

Other missionaries who will be heard during the week in the church include: Rev. Jean Fune, French Indo China; Rev. C. C. Eamigh, Ecuador, S. A.; Mrs. L. F. Irish, Palestine; and Rev. D. C. Kopp, Bible teacher and former missionary to Africa.

Services are planned for 2 p. m. daily starting Tuesday and concluding Friday as well as the nightly 7:30 services. At each service, one or more missionaries are heard, followed by the Bible address.

During the opening of the convention on Sunday, Rev. Fune addressed large audiences in the Pearson street church, telling of his Bible translation and coportage work in French Indo China.

On the closing day of the convention, the annual pledge for foreign missions will be lifted. The pledge of almost $7,000 made for 1946-47 has been overpaid, it is announced by church officials.

Lawrence County Farm, Home News

By Extension Representative,
Lewis C. Dayton, Agriculturist,
Miss Emmeline Mehlman,
Home Economics.

One of the outstanding style points this fall is the new natural rounded shoulder. In line with this change, shoulder pads have been re-styled. They have a new shape with less bulk and more shoulder fit. Pads also are lighter in weight.

Softer padding is used to mold the natural shoulder. A formed rubber which can be washed and ironed is used in many new pads for dresses, coats, and blouses.

More snap-in pads are being made. This will help to solve one of the difficulties in laundering dresses with shoulder pads. The snap-in pads come with a separate tape which holds part of the snap and the tape can be sewed into any garment. The other part of the snap is sewed to a tape fastened on the top of the pad.

Another new feature is the pad with a slip cover. The slip cover is sewed to the dress and the pad can be removed to make laundering easier.

Many women like organdy or net bodices with pads attached. This means fewer pads and a more uniform shoulder line.

The natural shoulder does not mean the shoulder without any padding, but that there is less padding that is curved down over the shoulder. Nearly all shoulders need a certain amount of camouflaging to give them the smooth curved line which is so important in the new dresses and coats.

Mummer's Parade Plans Progressing

New Wilmington Kiwanis Are Arranging Last Night Of October Fete

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 13.—Plans for the halloween parade and dance sponsored by the Kiwanis club are near completion. Prizes will be given by the business people of the community and will be valued at $2 and $5 with a grand prize of a $25 government bond for the most original costume.

A "cakewalk" will be staged, with a cake going as prize to the one passing beneath an arch when the music stops. A small charge will be required for participation in this event. Another feature of the evening will be a street dance held in the school grounds. "Shorty" Sewall will provide the music. The parade will form at eight p. m., and the route will be announced later by the committee, headed by G. I. Williams, who is assisted by Gailly Sharp and Howard Rodgers.

A nationally radio star will furnish the entertainment for the annual buckwheat rodeo to be staged early in November by the Rotary club, according to Harold Burns, general chairman.

Selection of a date depends upon the availability of the radio star.

The Women's Missionary society of the Mercer Presbyterian church will hold the annual fall rally in the U. P. church here next Thursday. Rev. Harris Stewart, a returned missionary, will be the principal speaker.

Students at the high school who have won places in the mixed choruses are: Lila Marie Blake, Donna Barbe, Lucille Borowicz, Eleanor Burns, Lucille Chesmer, Ruth Edgerton, Nancy Fyffe, Alice Frew, Dorothy Foster, Johanna Herbst, Betty Klumph, Louise Garrett, Betty Mason, Peggy Phillips, Max Plotts, Alice Ringer, Joan Runk, Betsy Silman, Joan Thomas, Carol Wilson, William Barbe, Ralph Buchanan, David Crowe, Logan Dicks, Wallace Downs, Mitchell Garrett, James Graham, William Mikol, Don Rapson, Charles Temple and Robert Whitman.

KNOW YOUR STATE...

Abundance of raw materials!

More farms than all England and Wales!

Great hunting and fishing!

Lead the nation in 50 major industries!

More vegetables than all New England!

Mountains, lakes, a vacation wonderland!

1/10 of all manufacturing payrolls in U.S.

Rich in history and American tradition!

Has more skilled workmen than any state!

KNOW YOUR COMMUNITY

Only state with two of the ten biggest cities!

A bigger market than some whole nations!

Pennsylvania is a great State—greater perhaps, than you know! It has more power, more skilled workmen than any other State. More churches, too! Many whole nations would relish the market that Pennsylvania, alone, provides. Pennsylvania has more farms than all England and Wales, and no other people in an industrial State enjoy such hunting and fishing as Pennsylvanians do. It's a great State for vacationers; it's headquarters for historians, for much of our American history was made here. There's a movement under way throughout Pennsylvania to boost our State and its products. Join it. Do what you can to help attract new industries. Urge desirable people to live here.

KOBUTA ELECTRIC PLANT IS LEASED

KOBUTA, Pa., Oct. 13.—(INS)—The huge, 3500-kilowatt electric generating plant that supplied the power for manufacture of synthetic rubber in the government's $61,000,000-plant during the war, will have its energies diverted to home-lighting soon.

The Duquesne Light company today announced it had leased the plant to supplement its own supplies. The company explained that while the overall demand for electric power has 73.5 per cent since 1939, it has increased its output of power only 27.4 per cent, due to inability to obtain materials during the war.

Boy Scouts $ 9,000

Scouting has proved to be one of the most effective methods of building our youth into better citizens of the community and nation. Lawrence County has 46 Scout units with 942 Scout members of all creeds and nationalities.

Girl Scouts 5,000

Every Girl Scout, regardless of her home environment, has an equal opportunity through Scouting to learn how to be a healthier and more useful citizen. In Lawrence County there are 40 Girl Scout troops, comprised of 620 girls.

City Rescue Mission 4,000

The Mission is a temporary haven for the truly destitute—the transients who otherwise would get their meals by begging on the city streets, and find lodging in the farmers' hay mows. Free meals and lodging are given to hundreds of such transients every year. The Mission has also met many other emergency needs of destitute families in the community.

Young Women's Christian Association 9,300

More than 3,000 women and girls participated actively last year in the social and recreational program of the Y. W. C. A. Many others were affected by the Association's work. An effective Y. W. C. A. is one of the most potent factors in developing girlhood into finer womanhood.

Elm Street Branch, Y. W. C. A. 3,500

Shenango Street Branch, Y. M. C. A. 3,300

These colored centers are probably the greatest influences in the community toward better and more harmonious racial understanding. Recreational facilities are utilized by a large portion of the Negro population of New Castle.

Salvation Army 3,500

To those without hope or faith, to those who seemingly are society's outcasts, The Salvation Army is ever a faithful friend, seeking to return value and meaning to life, giving courage to start again, to work again. Last year the Salvation Army gave direct material aid to 2,374 individuals and families in the county. It gave counsel and advice to many more who were sorely troubled with family and personal problems.

Young Men's Christian Association $11,900

Thru basketball leagues, swimming classes, summer camps, gymnasium classes and other means the Y. M. C. A. develops the physical, social and spiritual well being of thousands of boys and men in New Castle and vicinity, many of whom would not be able to afford any other such opportunity.

Jameson Memorial Hospital 10,000

New Castle Hospital 9,000

Our two fine hospitals had a total of 12,318 patients for the 12 months ending May 1947, who stayed an average of 8 days. It is estimated that the value of services rendered free to indigent patients amounted to $52,250. Without Community Chest support it would be impossible for the hospitals to maintain adequate service to those who can pay and also care for those who cannot.

Margaret Henry Home 15,000

Increased living costs have been particularly severe on the budget of the Home. Feeding, clothing, and sheltering 31 boys and 16 girls who have no other suitable home is paid for principally by the Community Chest contributors. Chest support does not pay for capital improvements or major maintenance of the building.

Catholic Welfare Conference 2,600

Much needed family and child welfare work is accomplished by the Conference in Lawrence County. While supplying direct relief to the needy it helps hundreds whose tangled domestic problems require the attention of a sympathetic and capable case worker.

Campaign and Administrative Costs 8,500

These costs are among the lowest for Community Chest of our size and type. The campaign is conducted entirely by local citizens who serve without cost.

Reserve for Contingencies 7,500

This amount is set aside to allow for uncollectible accounts where subscribers move away or cannot be reached and for unexpected emergencies that may arise to jeopardize the work of the Chest or any of the agencies.

Bell-Sabotin Await Gong In Amateur Bout Tonight

Ohio Light Heavies Are Eager For Clash

Both Contestants In Fine Condition As They Prepare To Meet First Time; Misto-McGinley, Sebastian-Hogan Bouts On Docket In Attractive Card.

Tonight in The Arena, there'll be a boxing show, comprised of eight battles, the principal one being between Ike Bell of Youngstown and Lallo Sabotin of Warren. They're two of the fastest light-heavyweights in the tri-state district. The first bout will commence at 8:30 p. m.

Both are reportedly dolled to the pink and eager to settle the question of superiority. Although both are Ohioans and live in adjoining cities it will be their first meeting.

Ike is a favorite here because of his consistent ring work. He boxed Billy Pozza of Ellwood City and dropped a decidedly close decision, but came back to decision Elkins Brothers who was rolling up a list of knockouts.

Lallo has fought here several times. A year ago he milled in The Arena, and fans liked his fighting. Last summer he easily vanquished Johnny Swanton and Homer Napier, Cleveland middleweights, at Flaherty field.

Misto, Hard Socker
Pete Misto, Youngstown's hard-smacking welterweight, will stop out against Pat McGinley of Pittsburgh, who will be making his debut here. What Pat can do with Pete remains to be answered by tonight's bout.

Four September 29 Arena winners will return for bouts tonight. They are:

Tommy De Santis, Youngstown, vs. Duck Pound, Warren, 118.
Billy Underwood, Youngstown, vs. Frankie Sedall, Warren, 126.
Frankie Lentine, Youngstown, vs. Carl Zoba, Warren, 126.
Another battle on the roster will see Mike Sebastian, a rough, tough middleweight of Sharon, casting punches with Pat Hogan, Pittsburgh. Mike fought here twice and registered a pair of hits in his appearances.

The Jefferson A. C. is promoting the show. Doors will be opened at 7:30 p. m.

Graziano-Zale Will Meet Again

Report Third Fight For Title Will Take Place In Miami In February

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—(INS)—A copyright story in the Chicago Herald-American has set Miami and February 12 as the date and site for the next Rocky Graziano-Tony Zale middleweight championship fight.

A story in the Herald-American's Sunday edition said Graziano will defend his title against Zale in the Orange Bowl. Harry Voiler, Miami Beach hotel figure, was named as the promoter and was also said to have contracted for exclusive promotional rights to all of Graziano's bouts for a period of ten years.

The fight, termed "a 100 per cent benefit enterprise," will direct proceeds to the Danon Runyon Memorial Cancer Fund and a Greater Miami recreational project. The story, written by Roger Treat and Clair Kelly, said that Graziano will donate $25,000 of his purse to the combined causes.

Local Horses Win At New Brighton

Champ And Rex Owned By Mrs. Ethel Degation And Harry Bradley Place In Valley Show

Champ, owned by Mrs. Ethel Degation; and Rex, owned by Harry Bradley, of this city, won places in the horse show at New Brighton, Sunday, against a large field, the entry of Western horses being among the largest of any show held in the tri-state area this year.

Mrs. Degation finished first in the ladies Western, and in the Western open, Bradley finished second and Mrs. Degation third, against a field of 45 riders. In the Western pairs, Mrs. Degation and her partner finished fourth.

The New Brighton show, sponsored by the Pulaski Boosters Club, will be the last show for Rex, his owner, Harry Bradley states. He has won 32 ribbons this summer, and with Patty Jo Leyde, away at school, it leaves Rex without a lady rider.

Neither Washington nor Washington State are looked upon as serious contenders this year, although it is rather hard to eliminate them at this stage of the game.

Titans Take Early Lead Against Thiel

Thiel Overcomes Titans 24-6 In Last Half Spurt

Westminster Leads At Half 6 To 3, But Fail To Stop Thiel In Second Half; Flashy Open Field Running And Clever Passing Attack, Thiel's Main Forte.

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 13.—Trailing 6-3 at halftime, a fighting Thiel college eleven roared back in the second half to score one touchdown in the third quarter and two in the fourth to hand Westminster a 24-6 lacing, here, Saturday afternoon before 3,000 fans.

Thiel was first to score. In the second period after they had stalled on the Titan 12, Barclay kicked a field goal from a difficult angle with the wind blowing in his face. The Titans, however, came right back to flash their best offensive of the year which netted a touchdown. The score came on a five yard pass from Demoise to Ross.

Airlanes Busy
From the first whistle until the last the airlines furnished hazardous travels to the Blue and White. Shortly after the game opened, DeMeter, Thiel's flashy open field runner, intercepted a Titan pass on the latter's 30. The Titan line showed its mettle by stopping three line plays but Boliver passed to Kuchis to take it to the 11 for a first down. Two line plays failed but Boliver took DeMeter's pass on the two. Henderson failed to gain and the Titans took over.

Score Field Goal
Thiel's field goal which broke the scoring deadlock came early in the second cantio. With Wiegus and Demoise alternating in lugging the leather, Westminster advanced from the 27 to Thiel's 29. A fumble lost five yards but then Demoise passed to Ross on the 14. Demoise spun off left tackle for a first down on the three.

Ross Tallies
Wiegus went to the one and Demoise to the one-foot mark. Wiegus fumbled on the five and it was fourth and five. Ross went out wide from his left end position and snatched a knee high pass from Demoise to score. Demoise had two tries for the extra point when Thiel was offside but both boots were wide.

Thiel received the second half kickoff and it was evident that the Stoebor coached boys were on the March. The Thielites advanced to Westminster's five. Trettel lost three and a pass was grounded. Kuchis then broke into the clear to take DeMeter's kick over the line. Berckley kicked goal and it was 10-6, Thiel.

Boliver Scores
With their backs to the wall, Westminster dipped into their bag of aerial tricks in the fourth quarter but Thiel turned the air tactics to their own advantage. The Titans were in trouble when they tried a pass from their own 10 and Bright intercepted on the 15. Henderson ploughed to the 10 and DeMeter went to the one for a first down. Boliver went off right tackle for a score standing up. The Tomcats crossed up the Titan defense for the extra point, De-

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

STATE GAME COMMISSION at Harrisburg has predicted that Pennsylvania hunters will enjoy "good hunting" this year despite shortened game supplies. Hunters' quarry, except deer and bear, will not be up to the abundance of former years notwithstanding a heavy restocking program, the commission announced. Officials blamed the decreased game supply on "intensive farming, poor breeding seasons for the past several years, record-high hunting pressure and a steady decline in available game habitat and cover". Pennsylvania issued hunting licenses to 850,224 individuals last year or more than 15 per cent of the permits issued in the entire nation. The commission reported. State income from licenses totaled $2,396,000.

During the 1946 season, game worth approximately $5,500,000 was killed by hunters in the state despite a "poorer than normal" supply, officials pointed out. Reports from hunters and game wardens indicated the total bag in 1946 included 35,000 deer, 300 black bears, 1,500,000 cottontail rabbits, 3,000 snowshoe hares, 770,000 squirrels, 2,000 wild turkeys, 213,000 ringneck pheasants, 8,000 quail, 17,000 woodcocks, 28,000 ducks and 228,000 woodchucks. In addition, more than $2,000,000 worth of valuable furs were taken from the commonwealth's wilderness. These included muskrats, minks, skunks, opossums, beavers, otters and weasels. The fox bag exceeded 45,000.

The "News" said at least three score policemen were assigned to the game, and "apparently became so engrossed in the game they forgot what they were there for."

Inspector John M. Flavin, of Oakland police station, said plainclothesmen would be assigned to the stadium at future games, in addition to uniformed officers, to prevent ticket scalping.

Dons Prove Cleveland Browns Not Invincible

(By International News Service)
Seven rival teams in the All-America Conference were heartened today by the realization that the champion Cleveland Browns are not invincible, after all.

A fairly wide-open race in the loop was assured Sunday when the Los Angeles Dons shaded the Browns 13 to 10 before 63,124 at Cleveland in the greatest A.A.C. upset of the season. A last-period field goal by Ben Agajanian won for the Dons after he had kicked one in the third quarter to knot the count.

San Francisco's Forty-niners tied the Browns for first place in the league's Western Division by trouncing the victory-starved Chicago Rockets, 42 to 28.

The first-place tie in the loop's Eastern section also was maintained when both the New York Yankees and the Buffalo Bills won. The Yankees swamped the hapless Brooklyn Dodgers, 31 to 7, before only 21,882 at Yankee Stadium. The Bills beat Baltimore, 20-15 before 27,345 at Buffalo in a wild game which was protested by Baltimore.

Red Skins-Eagles Tie
In the National Football League the Washington Redskins tied Philadelphia for first place in the Eastern Division by beating the New York Giants, 28 to 20, before 36,533 at Washington while the Eagles were losing to the champion Chicago Bears in a 40-7 landslide before 34,338 at Chicago. Sid Luckman of the Bears completed 14 passes, three of them for touchdowns.

The undefeated Chicago Cardinals moved into sole possession of first place in the Western Division by defeating the Packers, 14-10, before a record Green Bay crowd of 25,502.

Bob Waterfield hurled three touchdown passes to pace the Los Angeles Rams to a 27-13 win over the Lions before 45,747 at Detroit. Pittsburgh's Steelers scored in every period in trouncing the Boston Yanks 30-14.

REED RAIDERS WIN OVER PAUL STREET

LIGONIER, Pa., Oct. 13.—(INS)—The Rolling Rock polo team, starting a comeback toward the big time, today held a surprise, 8-7 victory in their first game over Middleburg, Va., quartet.

Cyril Harrison, former International seven-goal handicap player, scored six Rolling Rock goals to defeat the Virginia team Sunday before 3000 fans.

GETS 19.5 MILES PER GAL. IN '39 CAR!

This driver is smart. He brings his car to us regularly for a thorough motor check-up. Result: his car still runs economically and his service bills are small. Your engine's efficiency may decline so gradually you hardly know it. Better drive in for a check-up and let us correct little troubles before they grow into big ones. You may be wasting more money in excessive gas and oil consumption than the cost of reliable service—so don't delay! While you're waiting for your new Chrysler or Plymouth, we'll keep your old car in tip-top shape!

Men's American Field Hunting Coat

Here is a coat that will please the most particular hunter in a small game hunting coat and it's moderately priced.

It is made of heavy duck (water repellent) material with bi-swing back. Has two large size pockets with shell pockets that will hold twenty shotgun shells, two breast slashed pockets and large game pocket across the back—the game pocket is rubber lined and can be dropped for washing. Sizes 40-46.

Monthly Distribution Of Candy And Gum Made To Tuberculosis Patients At Deshon

Members of the Cooties organization of the V. F. W. made their monthly distribution of candy and chewing gum to more than 500 tuberculosis patients at Deshon Veterans' hospital in Butler Saturday evening.

Seven Cooties made the distribution, including Norman Minner, James Bell, George Hunt, George Christoff of New Castle, and Lawrence Price, Nick Baner and Harold Kildoo, of Ellwood City.

Patients are increasing in number at the hospital, it is reported, with 500 out of the 1,100 patient at the hospital confined to the tuberculosis wards. A program was sponsored during the evening by groups from New Castle, Ellwood City and Sharon.

HEART ATTACK CAUSES ACCIDENT

When John Brincko, 107 West Wallace avenue, was seized with a heart attack at 12:15 a. m. October 12, his car struck and damaged that of Iyor Davis parked in front of 410 East Wallace avenue, which in turn struck the auto of Joseph F. Porado, which was parked ahead. Brincko was taken to the Jameson Memorial hospital because of his heart condition, according to city police.

Argentina-Chile Prepare To Sign Anti-Red Pact

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 13. — (INS)—Official sources revealed today that Argentina and Chile in the next few days will sign an anti-Communist pact which Brazil may adhere to later.

The joint action is an outgrowth of Chile's ouster of two Yugoslav diplomats accused of instigating strikes in behalf of the new International Communist Organization.

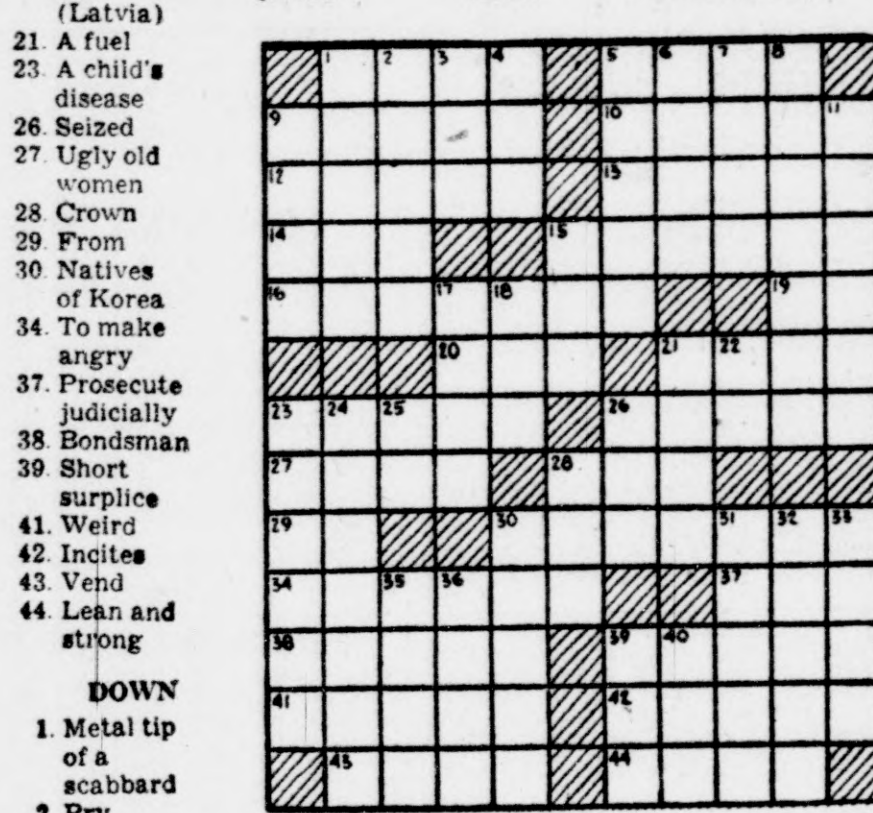

Groundwork for the projected pact was laid at the recent conference at Rio de Janeiro at which the Inter-American Defense Treaty was drafted.

Brazilian delegates warned privately at Rio that action against Communism was needed on a hemisphere basis.

The original Siamese twins, who actually were more Chinese than Siamese, bore the names Eng and Chang, meaning "Right" and "Left."
